

AACLCLC Judicial Consequences

In School Consequences

Similar to what goes on now, apologies, in school clean up, peer counseling, posting signs, educational projects, etc.

Failure to do these consequences in the described time period (violation of rule 400.2) would automatically result in an after school consequence of 30 minutes during the prescribed After School Time Period (Monday 3-4 pm) Parents would be notified of mandatory attendance.

After School Consequences

More serious offenses or repeat offenses for violating the same rule could be immediately given an After School Consequence of 30 or 60 minutes, activity to be determined by supervising facilitator. Parents would be notified of mandatory attendance.

Learners who were assigned the After School Consequence of 30 minutes for failure to serve In School Consequences who did not show and participate in the activity would automatically be reassigned to the next After School Consequences activity and their sentence would be doubled. (30 to 60 minutes, or 60 to 120 minutes) Additionally, there would be a mandatory parent/learner/facilitator/JC Clerk conference where parents and learner would draw up a contract for appropriate consequences for the learner's failure to abide by judicial system consequences, including After School Consequences. The contract might include suspension from the AACLCLC and will begin the discussion of transferring the learner to another AUSD program if the learner cannot begin to respect the judicial process of the AACLCLC community.

Out Of School Consequences

Serious violations of school rules where suspension is recommended to lead facilitator by Judicial Committee. Lead facilitator will review the case and give appropriate consequences.

AUSD / State suspension violations reviewed and acted upon by Lead Facilitator.

Suspension for repeated failure to serve JC sentences after parent/learner/facilitator/JC clerk contract is written.
