ACLC Community Learning Center (ACLC)
Learner Code of Conduct (LCC)

I UNDERSTAND THE ACLC PHILOSOPHY

- I understand ACLC pursues the AUSD Benchmarks and Graduate Profile in a different manner than that of a traditional elementary, middle or high school, and that the ACLC promotion and graduation requirements exceed those of the AUSD.
- I understand that I will be taught in a variety of methods including direct teaching, interactive computer applications, the Internet, independent reading and shared learning with my peers.
- I understand that this program is housed in a learning environment that is multi-aged (5 – 18 years), collaborative and shared, and that I intend to remain in this school until the end of high school.
- I understand that the many learning modalities of this program include those of a collaborative and project based nature, and I come with an eagerness to learn how to work respectfully with a diverse array of learners.
- I understand that the facilitator's primary role is to facilitate my learning and that I am expected to actively participate in the facilitation process. I understand that as I grow as a learner at ACLC, I will be expected to structure some of my own time and work without constant facilitator direction and supervision.
- I understand the importance of maintaining regular attendance at ACLC and that unsatisfactory attendance could lead to my dismissal from the program.

I UNDERSTAND THE ACLC LEARNING-TO-LEARN EXPECTATIONS

- I understand that I am expected to come to ACLC with the desire and motivation to learn and become an active participant in the community.
- I understand that in order to be successful at ACLC, I must make the commitment to work towards becoming:
    - Self-directed
    - Self-motivated
    - Focused on quality
    - An active team participant
    - An effective problem solver
    - An active community member
- I understand that success in ACLC comes from taking responsibility for my own actions and learning and not from making excuses or blaming others.

I UNDERSTAND THE ACLC JUDICIAL SYSTEM AND TECHNOLOGY AGREEMENTS

- I understand that the rules of the center are agreed upon by the learners at ACLC, that I will receive a copy of the rules, and that I will read and abide by these rules. I understand that continued or serious violation of these rules will be grounds for removal from the program.
- I understand that general discipline at ACLC is handled by a learner elected Judicial Committee that is supervised by a facilitator.
- I agree to abide by all consequences assigned by the Judicial Committee.
- I have read the ACLC Technology Agreement and understand that if I violate any part of either of these agreements it may be grounds for removal from the Center.
- I understand that any electronic devices that are brought to school (cell phones, iPods, etc.) are my personal responsibility for their safe keeping. ACLC is not responsible for the loss or breakage of any electronic device brought to school. ACLC also cannot be responsible if these devices are stolen.
